Honorable William J. Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Bill:

I understand that [redacted] has been reassigned from your Office of Soviet Analysis. On the occasion of his departure from the Washington, D.C. area, I request that you extend to [redacted] my sincere appreciation for the valuable assistance he has provided to the Department of Defense and the U.S. Government [redacted] regarding the Strategic Defense Initiative.

The Department of Defense called upon [redacted] on countless occasions during the past several months to describe Soviet activities in ballistic missile defense to members of the U.S. Congress [redacted]. His concise, factual presentations have enlightened these audiences to the stark reality of the Soviet Union's unrelenting pursuit of strategic defense programs and have formed a critical part of the convincing argument for the President's Strategic Defense Initiative.

[redacted] supported me directly in April of this year

His convincing portrayal of Soviet technical developments and deployment activities related to ballistic missile defenses evoked pleas [redacted] for our continued efforts to declassify and disseminate as much of this type of information as possible.

[redacted] past support of the Department of Defense is greatly appreciated, and I wish him well in his forthcoming overseas assignment.

Sincerely,

L-273
